Creativity Workshop

Recruit 120 or more jumpers and send up to three staff on a Creativity Workshop. John Grain Associates are fundraising specialists who have developed a range of creativity and innovation workshops to help you and your team create the right conditions for innovation to flourish in every corner. We have a long history and considerable experience in this area, from pioneering money back guarantees in direct mail to offering free downloadable creative templates via our website. We offer unique Creative Workshops that will give you a range of potentially great new ideas, improve your creative skills and techniques, and help you start to establish an environment that recognises and rewards innovation.
